About the Project

Youth for Truth is a 7-day Polish-Ukrainian youth exchange focused on media literacy, critical thinking, fake news, disinformation and safe communication online. During the project, participants from Poland and Ukraine will work together, exchange perspectives, take part in workshops and create practical educational tools that can later be used in schools, NGOs and local communities.

The exchange will take place in Wrocław, Poland, from 10 to 16 August 2026. The working language of the exchange will be English, so participants should be able to communicate in English at a basic communicative level.

Schedule

Preparation

First, participants will complete a short preparatory Moodle course. This will help everyone understand the basic concepts connected with the project. As part of the preparation, each participant will also conduct a short survey in their local community and collect at least 15 responses.

Youth Exchange

The second stage is the youth exchange in Wrocław. During the exchange, participants will take part in integration activities, workshops, discussions, practical tasks and group work. They will analyse examples of disinformation, learn how to verify information and work together on educational materials.

Dissemination

The final stage is dissemination of the results. After the exchange, participants will help share and test the project outcomes in their communities. Each national group will organise at least one local workshop using the materials created during the exchange. The workshop should involve at least 10 participants

We are looking for:

- 10 participants from Poland and 10 participants from Ukraine, aged 19–24.
- are interested in the topic of fake news, disinformation, media literacy and critical thinking,
- are open to other cultures and willing to work in an international group,
- want to learn, share their perspective and actively participate in the whole process,
- can communicate in English in a simple but understandable way,
- are ready to take part not only in the exchange itself, but also in the preparation phase and dissemination activities after the project.
- You do not need to be an expert in media, journalism or fact-checking. What matters most is your motivation, openness and willingness to work with others.

Recrutation process

To apply, participants need to complete the online application form.

After reviewing the applications, we will contact selected candidates. Before making the final decision, we may invite some applicants to a short online interview. The purpose of the interview is to get to know the candidate better, verify the information from the form and check whether the project is a good fit for both sides.

Rules

This is an educational youth exchange, not a holiday trip.

Participants are expected to take part in all planned activities, workshops and group tasks. There will be scheduled breaks and free time, but participants should respect the programme and the group rules.

During the project, we expect everyone to follow basic principles of respectful cooperation:

- respect other participants, organisers and group leaders,
- be open to different opinions, experiences and cultural backgrounds,
- communicate in a kind and non-discriminatory way,
- take care of the safety and comfort of the group,
- participate actively in the activities,
- respect the schedule and agreed rules,
- avoid hate speech, bullying, discrimination and behaviour that may harm others.

The exchange is based on tolerance, mutual respect and intercultural dialogue. We want to create a safe space where young people from Poland and Ukraine can learn from one another and work together on tools that help others recognise disinformation and communicate more responsibly.
